Betsy,

It's kinda hard to write on this stumpy tree so I'll make it short!

Have fun this summer & be good.

Jan.

Betsy,

Being new this year has made it a unique experience for me.. I've only seen you in history - but I haven't really had a chance to know you. Best of luck to you in the future.

Love,
Mavis

The year has been short and it has still been a long year. Will miss you next year but just as much. Best of luck always

Love,
Vicki

Wow! Time flies when you're having fun. Thanks for the memories.

What I ask for is absurd:
that life shall have a meaning. What I strive

With only an antiquated constitution for comfort and the promise of a new one for inspiration,
the Student Council Association labored through its traditional managing somehow to keep from being stranded in the void between the students and the association.

Constitution Convention

First they talked,
then they argued,
and finally they fought.
And then they fought some more.
For long months
the Constitutional Convention trudged on.
At times the only thing delegates could agree upon was that they might never be able to agree.
But somehow
they eventually did concur
on a Constitution.
"It's not perfect,"
as one constitutional expert explains,
"but then again, what is?"

Character, leadership, scholarship and service are the criteria for members of the National Honor Society. The NHS innovates new ideas from these old ideals. Some new ideas from this year's NHS were special studyhalls, non-credit courses and enlightening seminars.

A new language—
a different alphabet—
an entirely new mood—
these are a few of the problems faced by foreign language students.
Members of the French and Spanish Honor Society have succeeded in conquering these problems and as a result have achieved the satisfaction of mastering a language.

Debating is essential for two reasons—
It provides a chance
to hear
other's ideas, and it enables one to express his own.
It takes a good deal of organization,
a good deal of originality and a great deal of time.

current events

For understanding, you first need information,
information provided by knowledgeable people.
The Current Events Club sought out these people.
And through information they obtained knowledge ranging from student's rights in a public school—
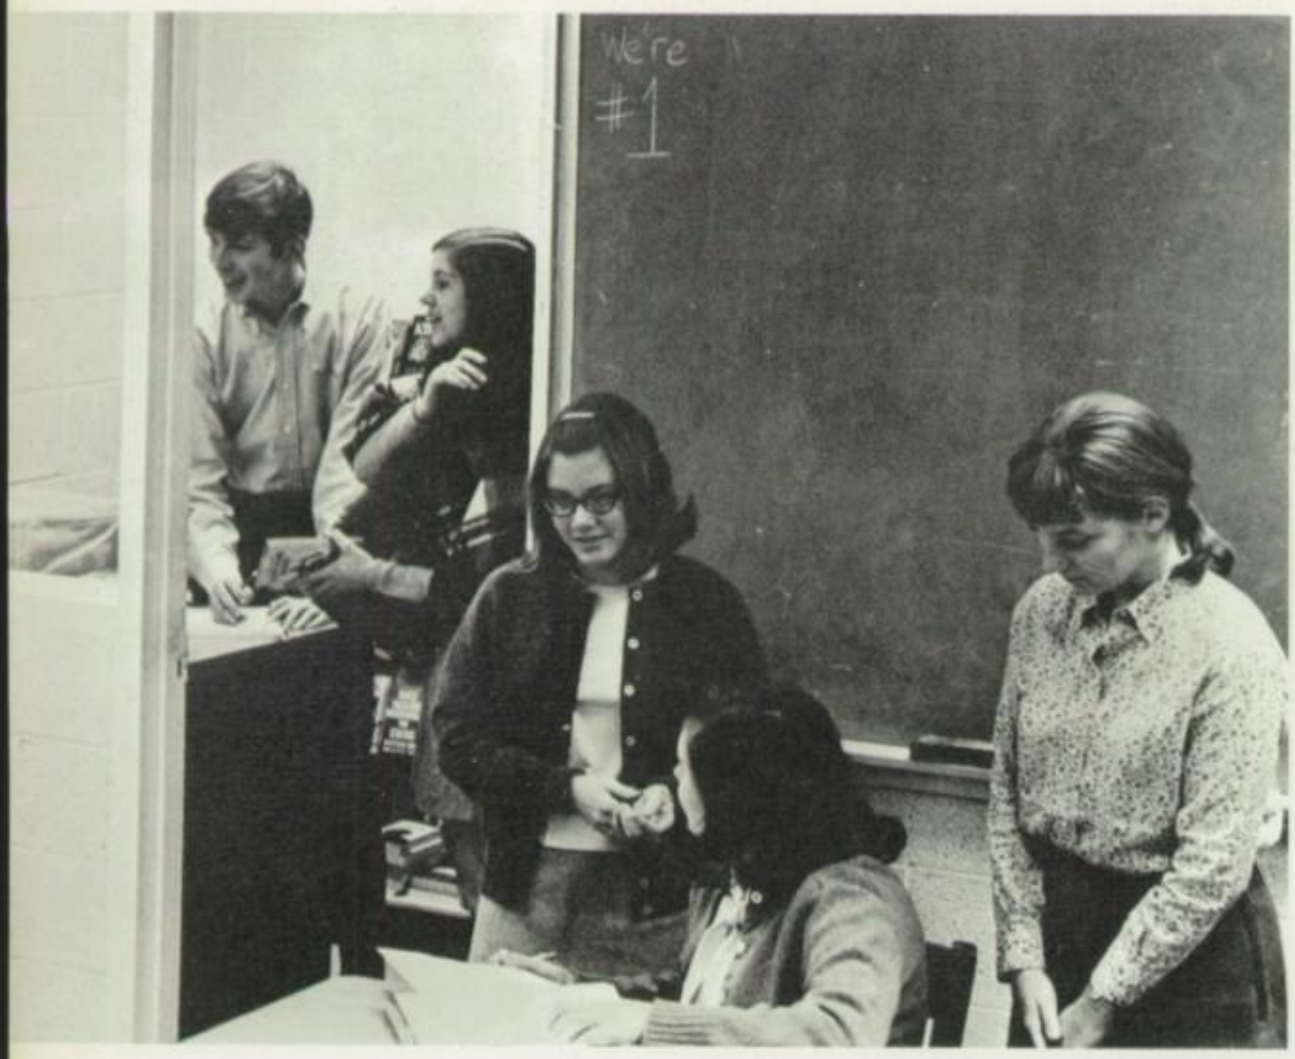
to the Biafran situation.



The Library Club may be the most notorious group around, noted for wild Christmas parties and scandalous action on the balcony, but they are also a hard-working bunch who manage to keep the library going through library courses, Senior term paper research, and everyday hum-drum.

No, Christmas isn't dead.
That was the message of the CHHS Spanish Club.
During the Yule season,
the Club acquainted its members with the Christmas customs of Spain.
There was a celebration of the posados
with the breaking of the piñatas.
The celebration was heightened by singing carols
and a visit from the Three Kings.

Using speakers, films, individual projects and field trips, members of the Biology Club are exposed to subjects ranging from genetics to oceanography. Exploring the varied interests of the members, the Biology Club illustrates the facets of Biological Sciences.

The Physical Science Club, in an effort to understand, explores new theories in the fields of chemistry and physics.

The FHA Club challenges the individual to find satisfaction in a useful life.
A key work is "future," but "present" is a key idea.
FHA week focuses on service to school and community, and underlines the purpose of the club.

Coping with the problems of learning in the future will take more than just an average teacher.
The teachers of the future must both be experts in their field and have wide knowledge of other subjects.
The Future Teachers of America

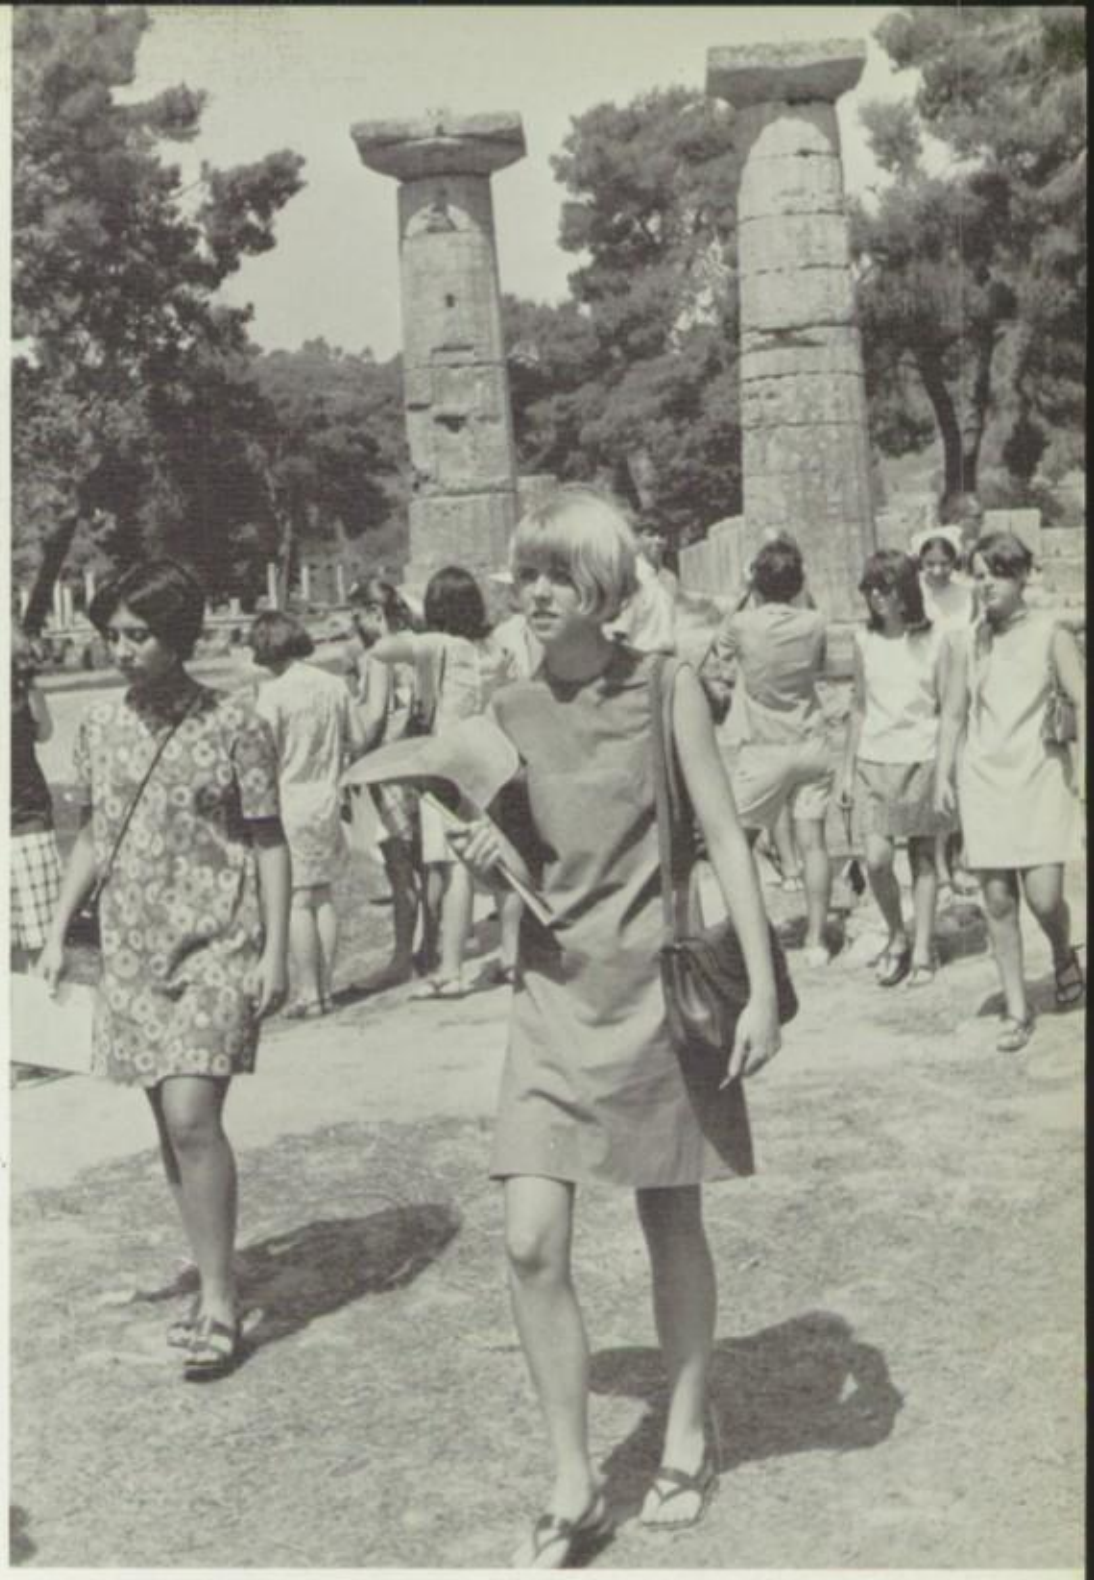
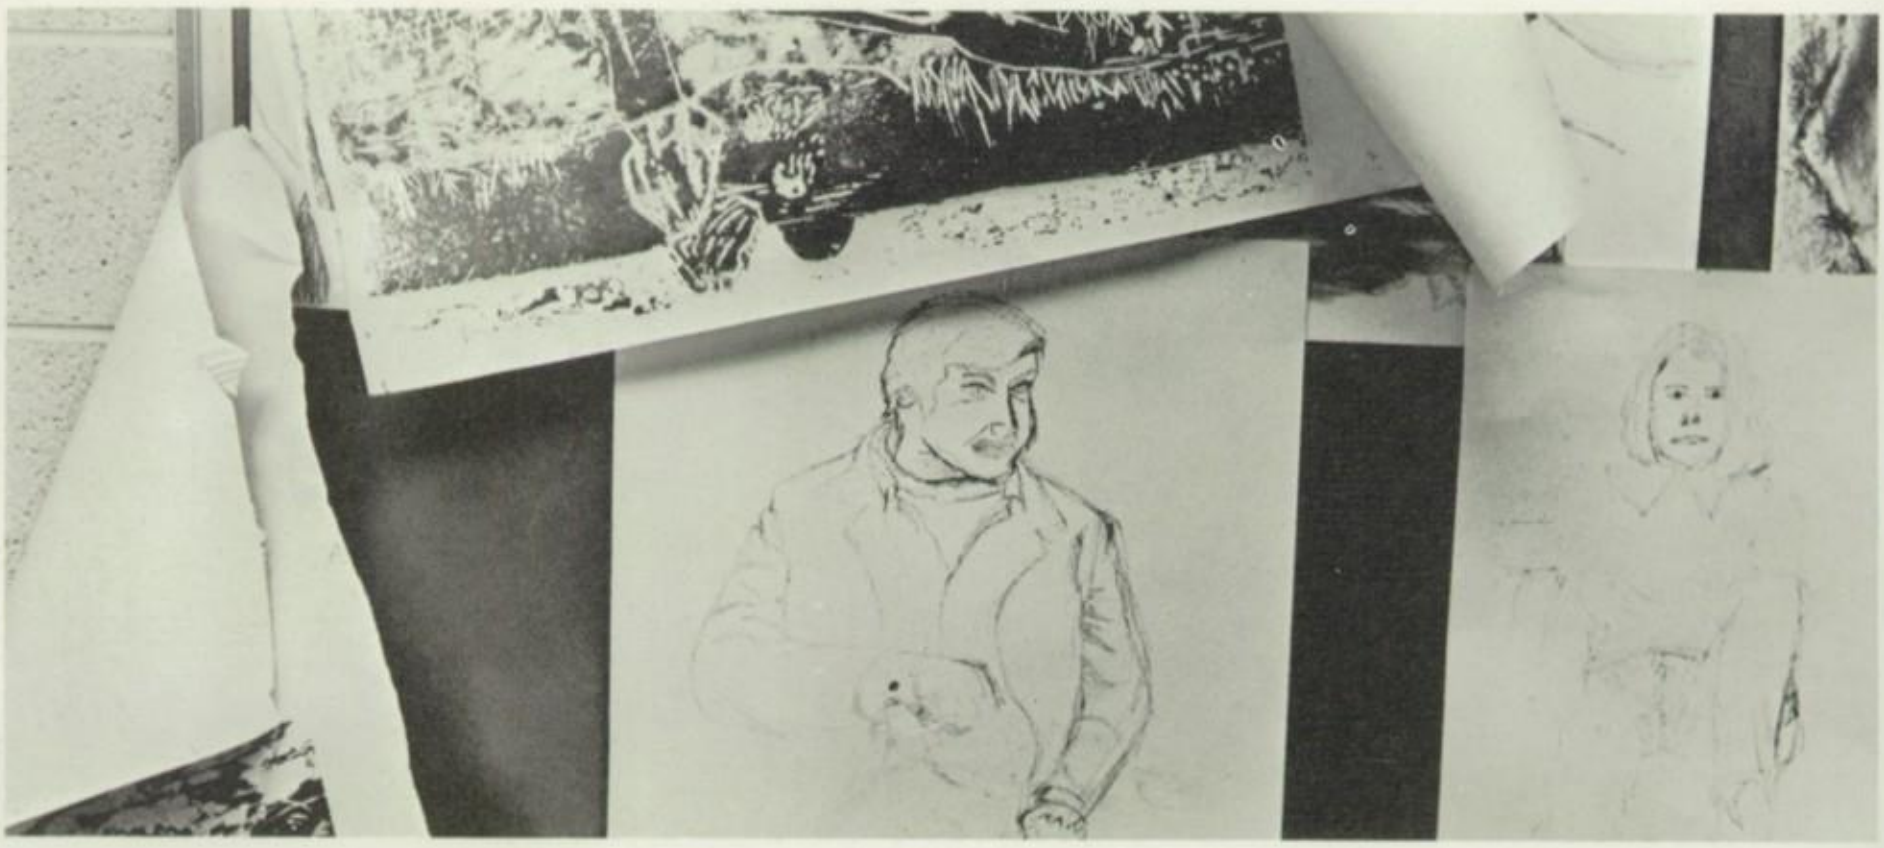
Bringing people closer together and improving communication between the United States and foreign countries—these are the ideals of American Field Service.

Americans abroad and foreign students in America take part in a cultural exchange which can broaden the road to peace.





art

Creativity can be developed by things other than by an opportunity to create.
Members of the Art Club are not only given the time and facilities to create, but are also exposed to the works of the Picassos, Rembrandts and Van Goghs through visits to museums and exhibits.

arts and crafts

The crafty set of CHHS
has formed a new club.
The Arts and Crafts Club has been dabbling in jewelry and decorating their homes with paper flowers.

folk music

Folk music is defined as music created and handed down by common people.
It ranges from melodious love songs to ballads with a cacophonous twang.
The Folk Music Club
attempts to put folk music back into a world dominated by psychedelia, hard rock, and soul.

drama

There is romance in drama, in finding yourself through a character created by someone else,
but there are so many more sides,
all as intriguing.
The Drama Club takes a total interest in theatre,
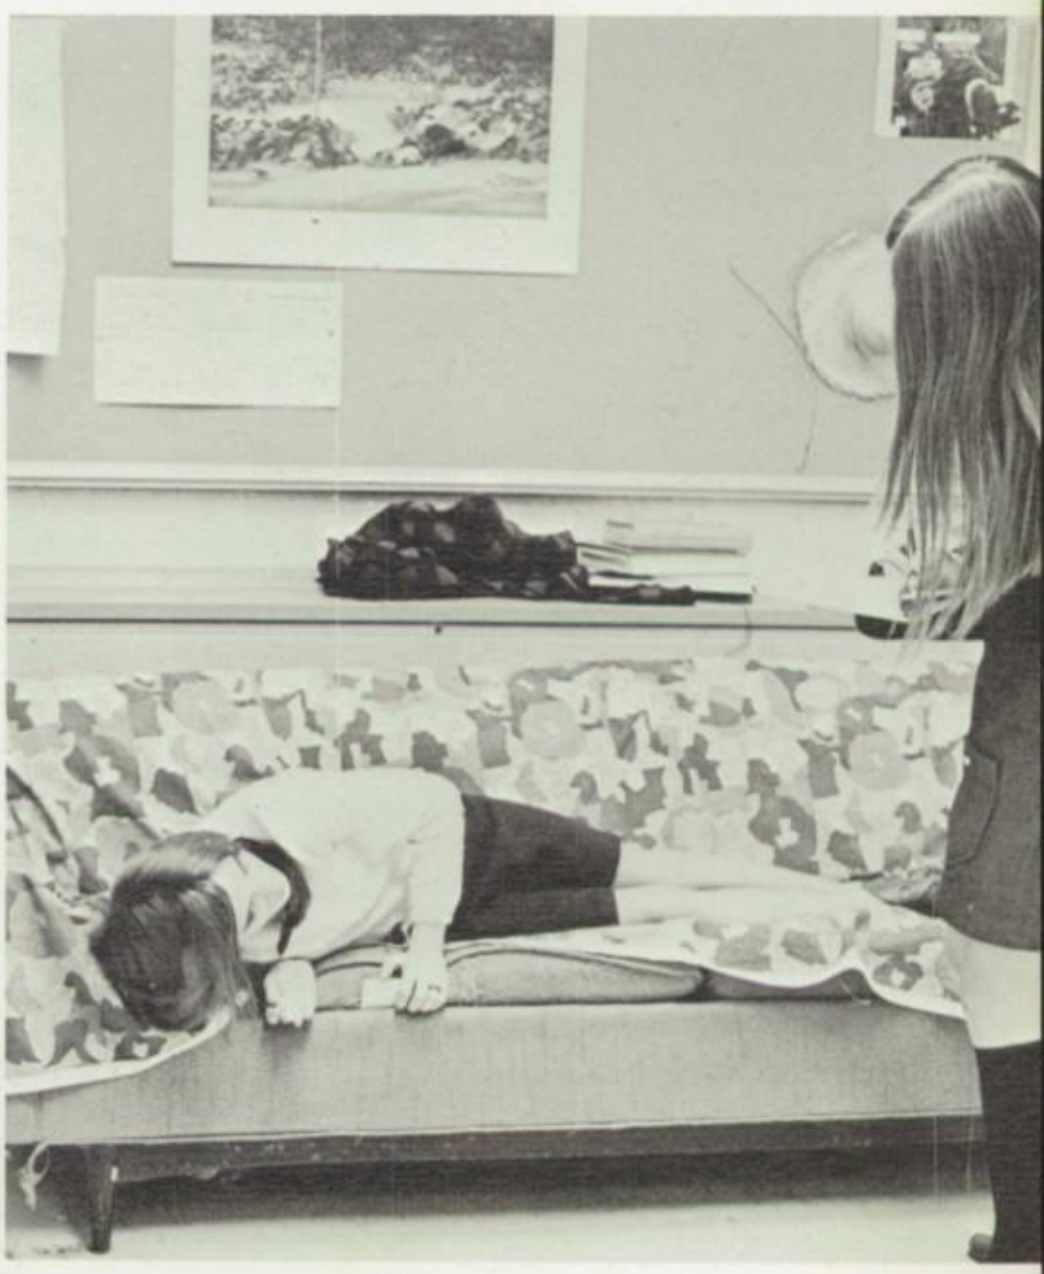
from acting to lighting,
directing to costuming.



The Other Mud is an experiment in expression. Creativity is a discipline requiring experience and devotion.
It is a combination of weary labor and an outflowing of inspiration. Seeing your work in print is more than enough reward.

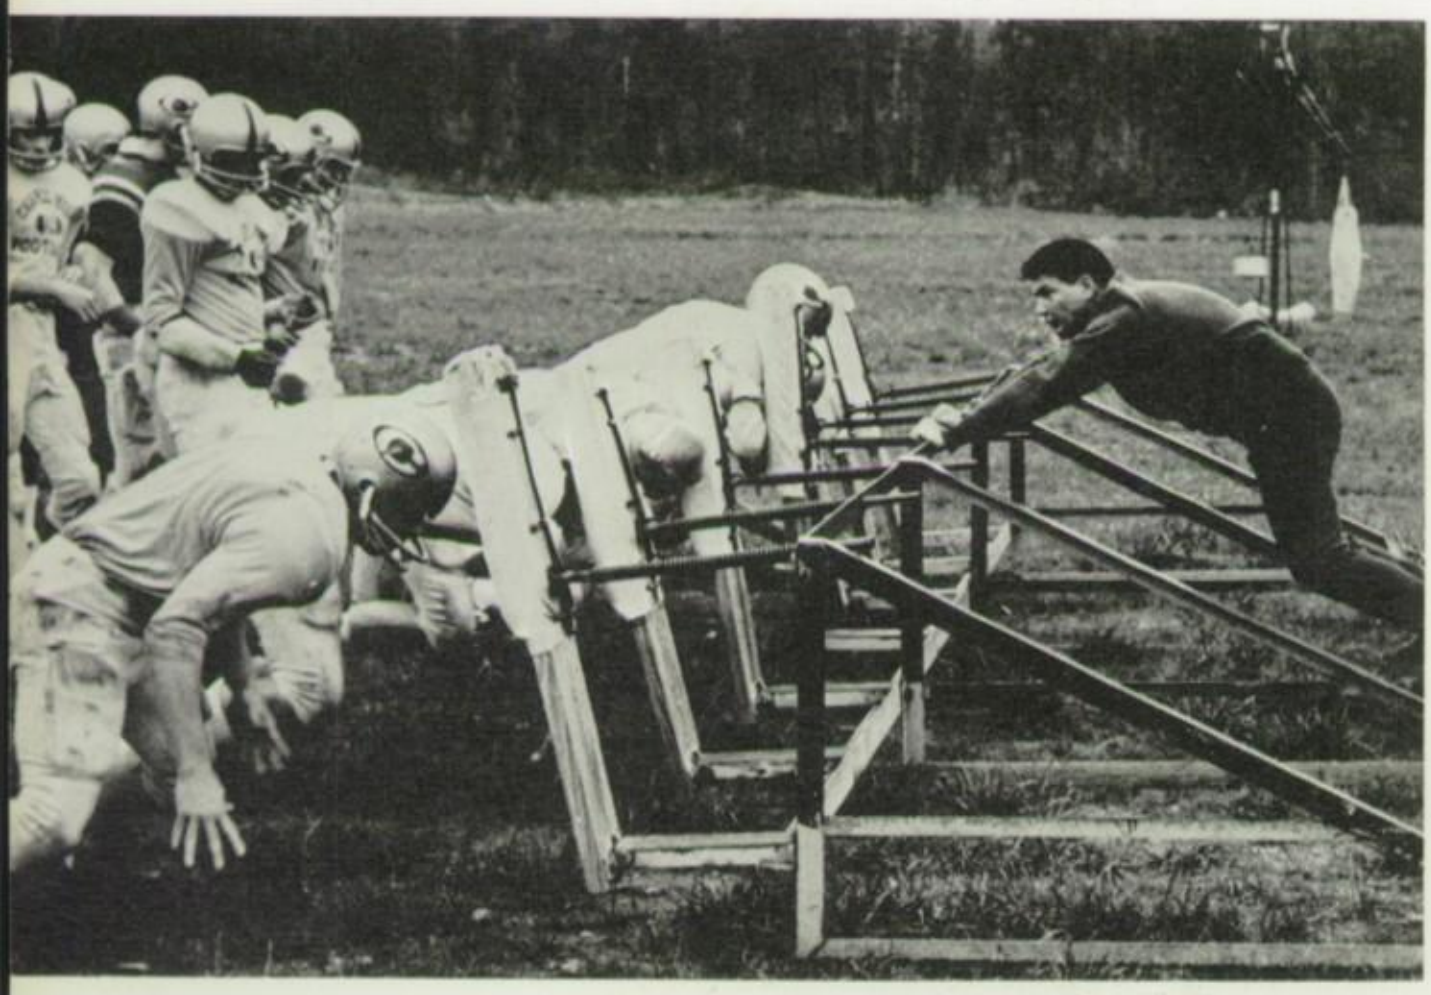
Varsity football team



Football: CHHS's seventh period.
Ask a football player
what "going live" means.
Ask him about "wind sprints"
and "contact".
If he doesn't grin, or grimace, he hasn't played football for Coach Bob Culton's Wildcats.
He doesn't know how vicious August can be—
or how glad, and sad, he can be in November.
Friday night—
48 minutes puts a whole week of practice in perspective . . .

Football's no game.
Football's a fist in your stomach,
salt in your eyes.
Looks easy enough—
the dirt in your teeth
and the grass in your nose.
Comfort's a plastic bottle filled with hot water.
But what's it really like—
To win your opener, and beat Southern after time has run out?
Why does Webb constitute a heartbreaker?
What is the "injury?"
and "victory?"
Who's Northern, who's Roxboro?
How does it feel to be third in the conference?
Not many guys know.
But those that do—know it backwards.

JV football team

jv's

Inexperience, depth.
One could hardly use both words to talk about the same football team.
But the sophomores had both.
The JV's are the traditionally inexperienced.
But they won.
The varsity took the best of what they had.
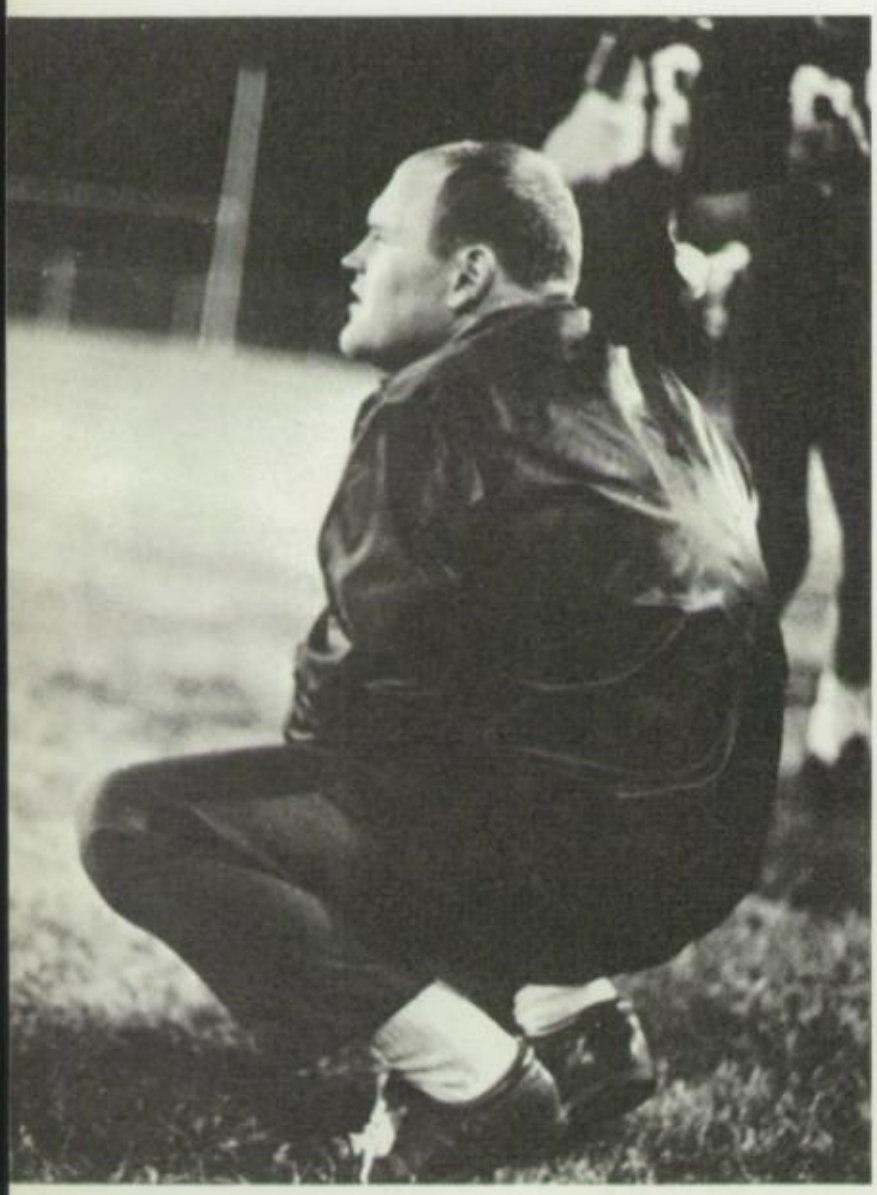
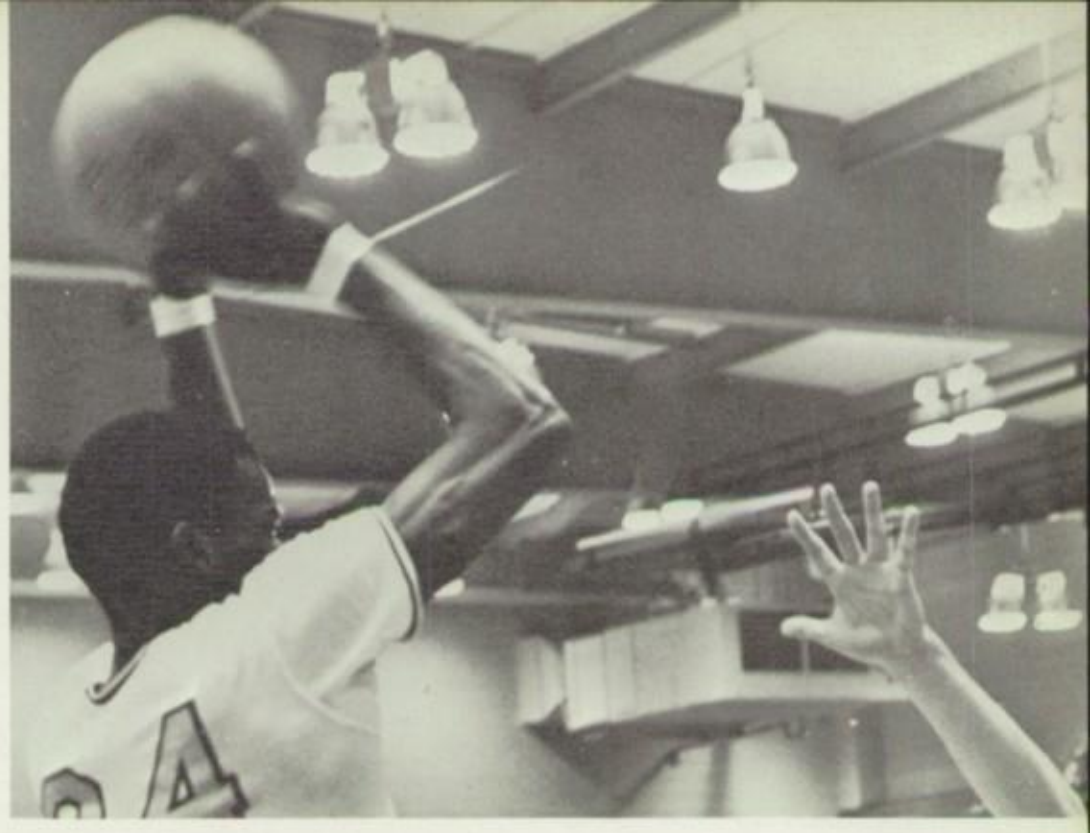
And they still won.





The only difference
between a soph
and a senior
is experience. It is not unusual to expect
the worst
from JV athletics.
But this year's sophomores are giving JV basketball
a new image,
and part of the new image
is the new coach.
With their style,
the JV's can look forward to a proud
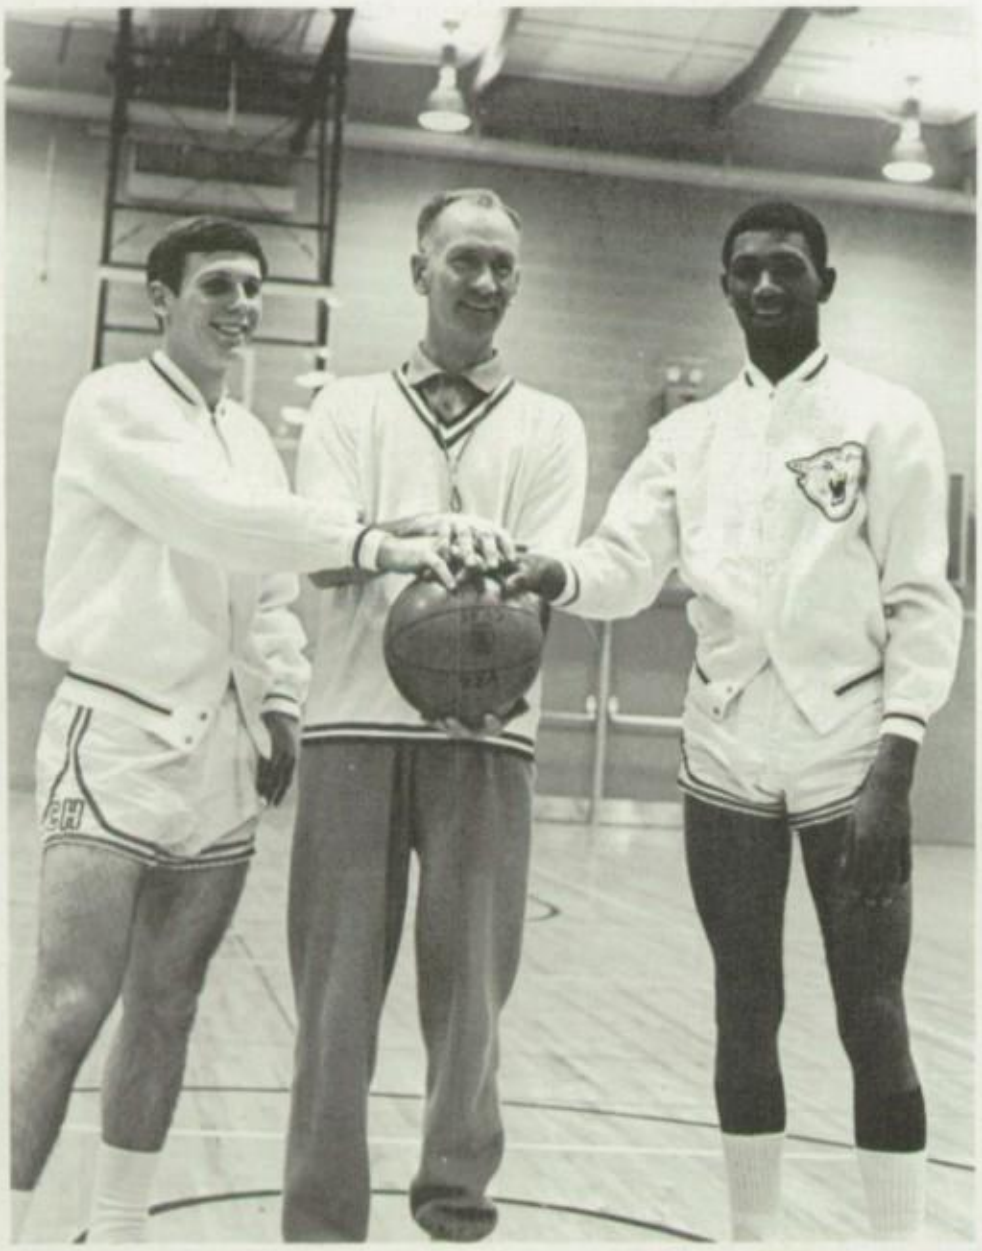
varsity career.

JV basketball team

Varsity basketball team

varsity basketball



District Three basketball is no pushover. Neither is Chapel Hill's Wildcat basketball team. Coach Bob Culton sees that his team has both individual standouts and methodical balance. Most teams have one or the other, but it gets to be a long season . . .

Basketball's no gentleman's game. You have to be quick, tough. You have to be good. There's no such thing as "offensive" or "defensive"—only aggressive. Aggressive versatility, aggressive speed. And if you're not everything you have to be at Chapel Hill, there's talent on the bench to take your place.

state tournament

Basketball is a game which can either minimize or maximize mistakes.
A good team will minimize their own
and miximize their opponents.
Tournaments usually reflect a good deal about the game, but little
about the teams.
So it was with Chapel Hill.
A phenomenal record;
wasted in one night.
But
not before they had shown the kind of team Chapel Hill really has.
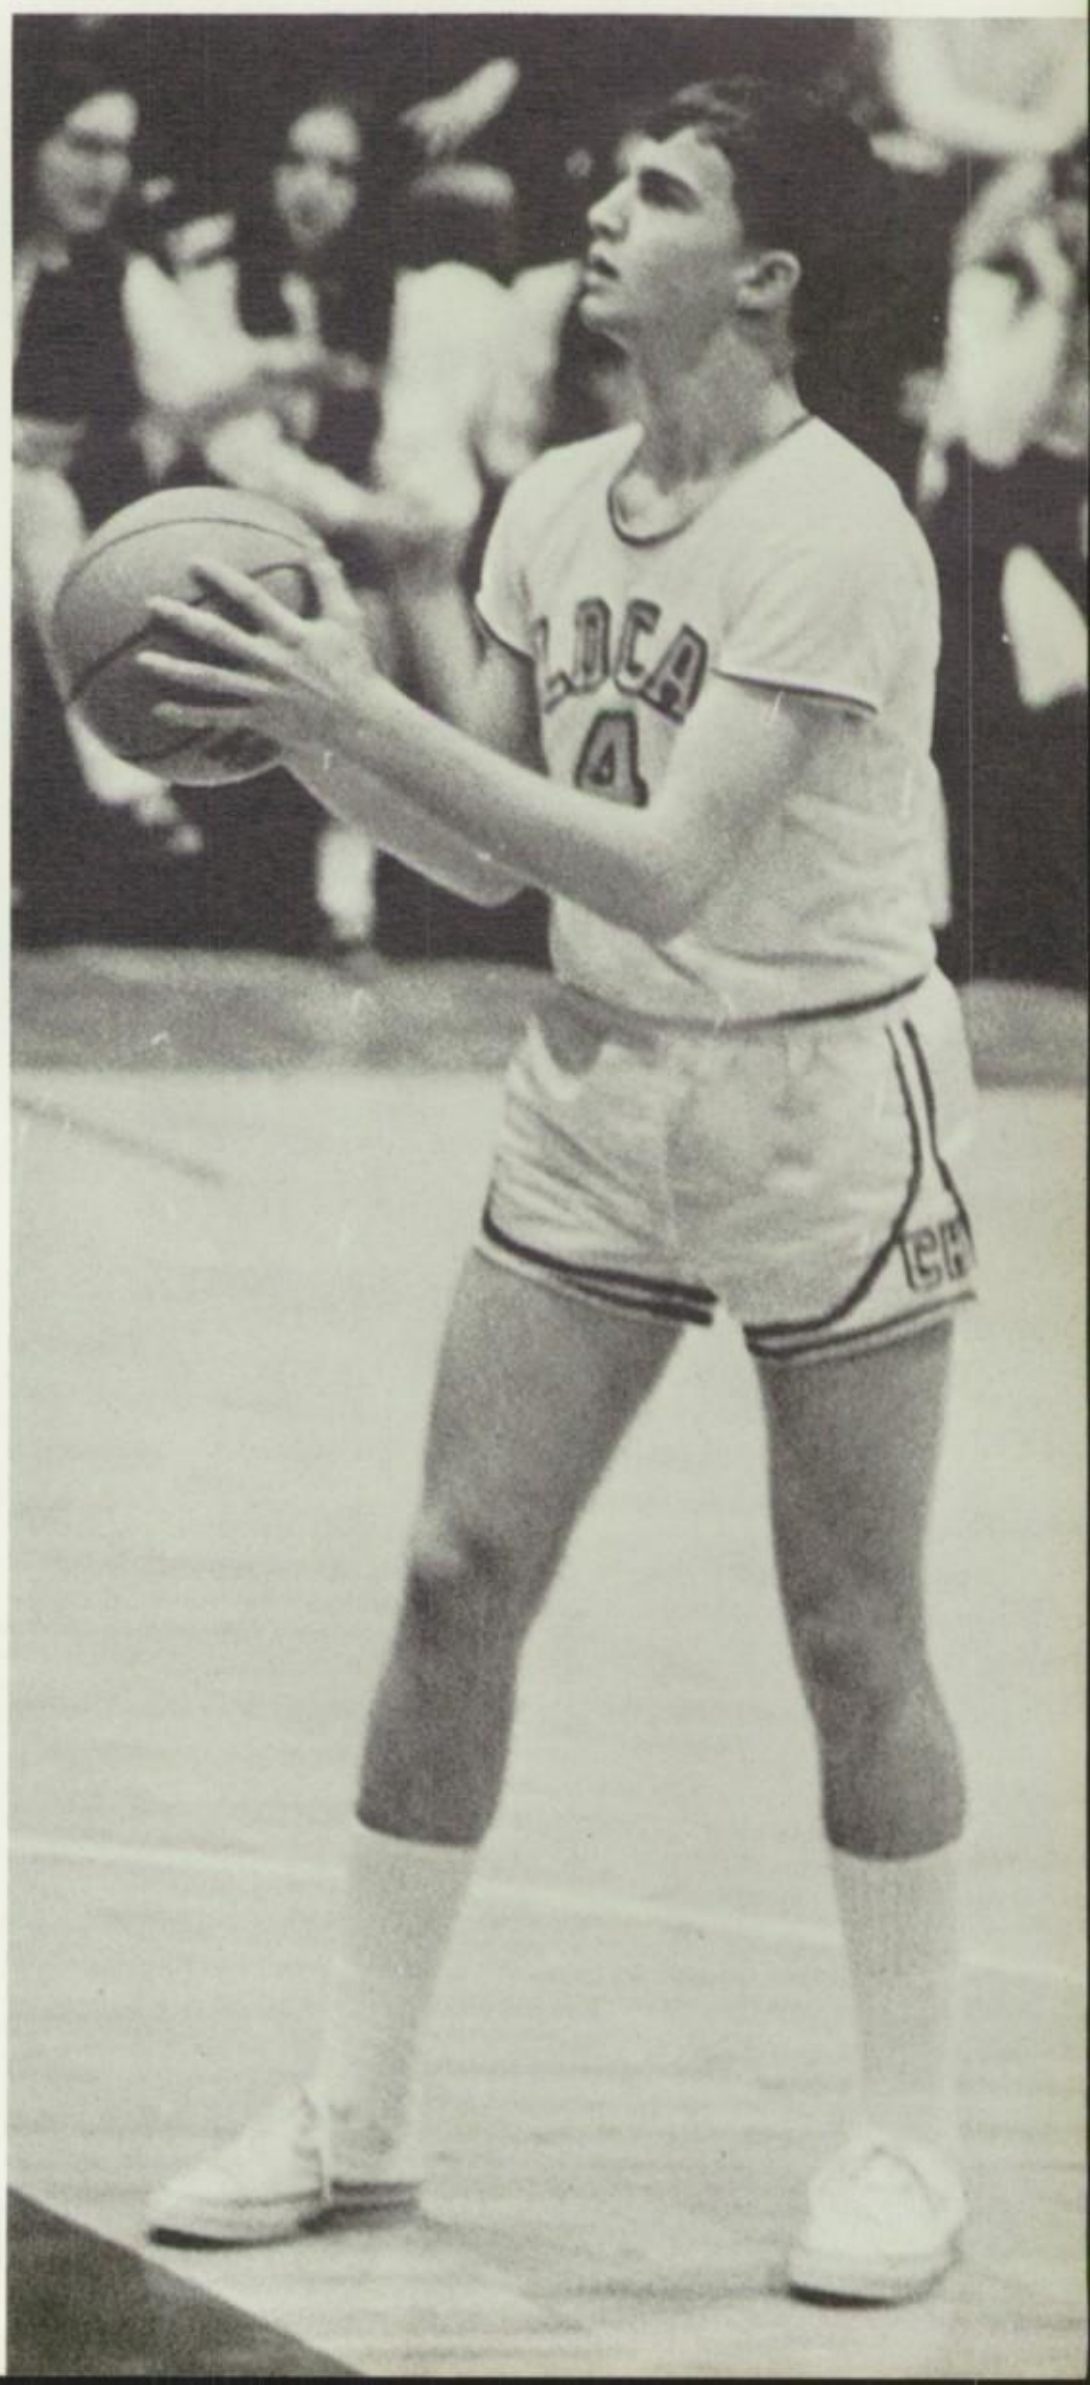
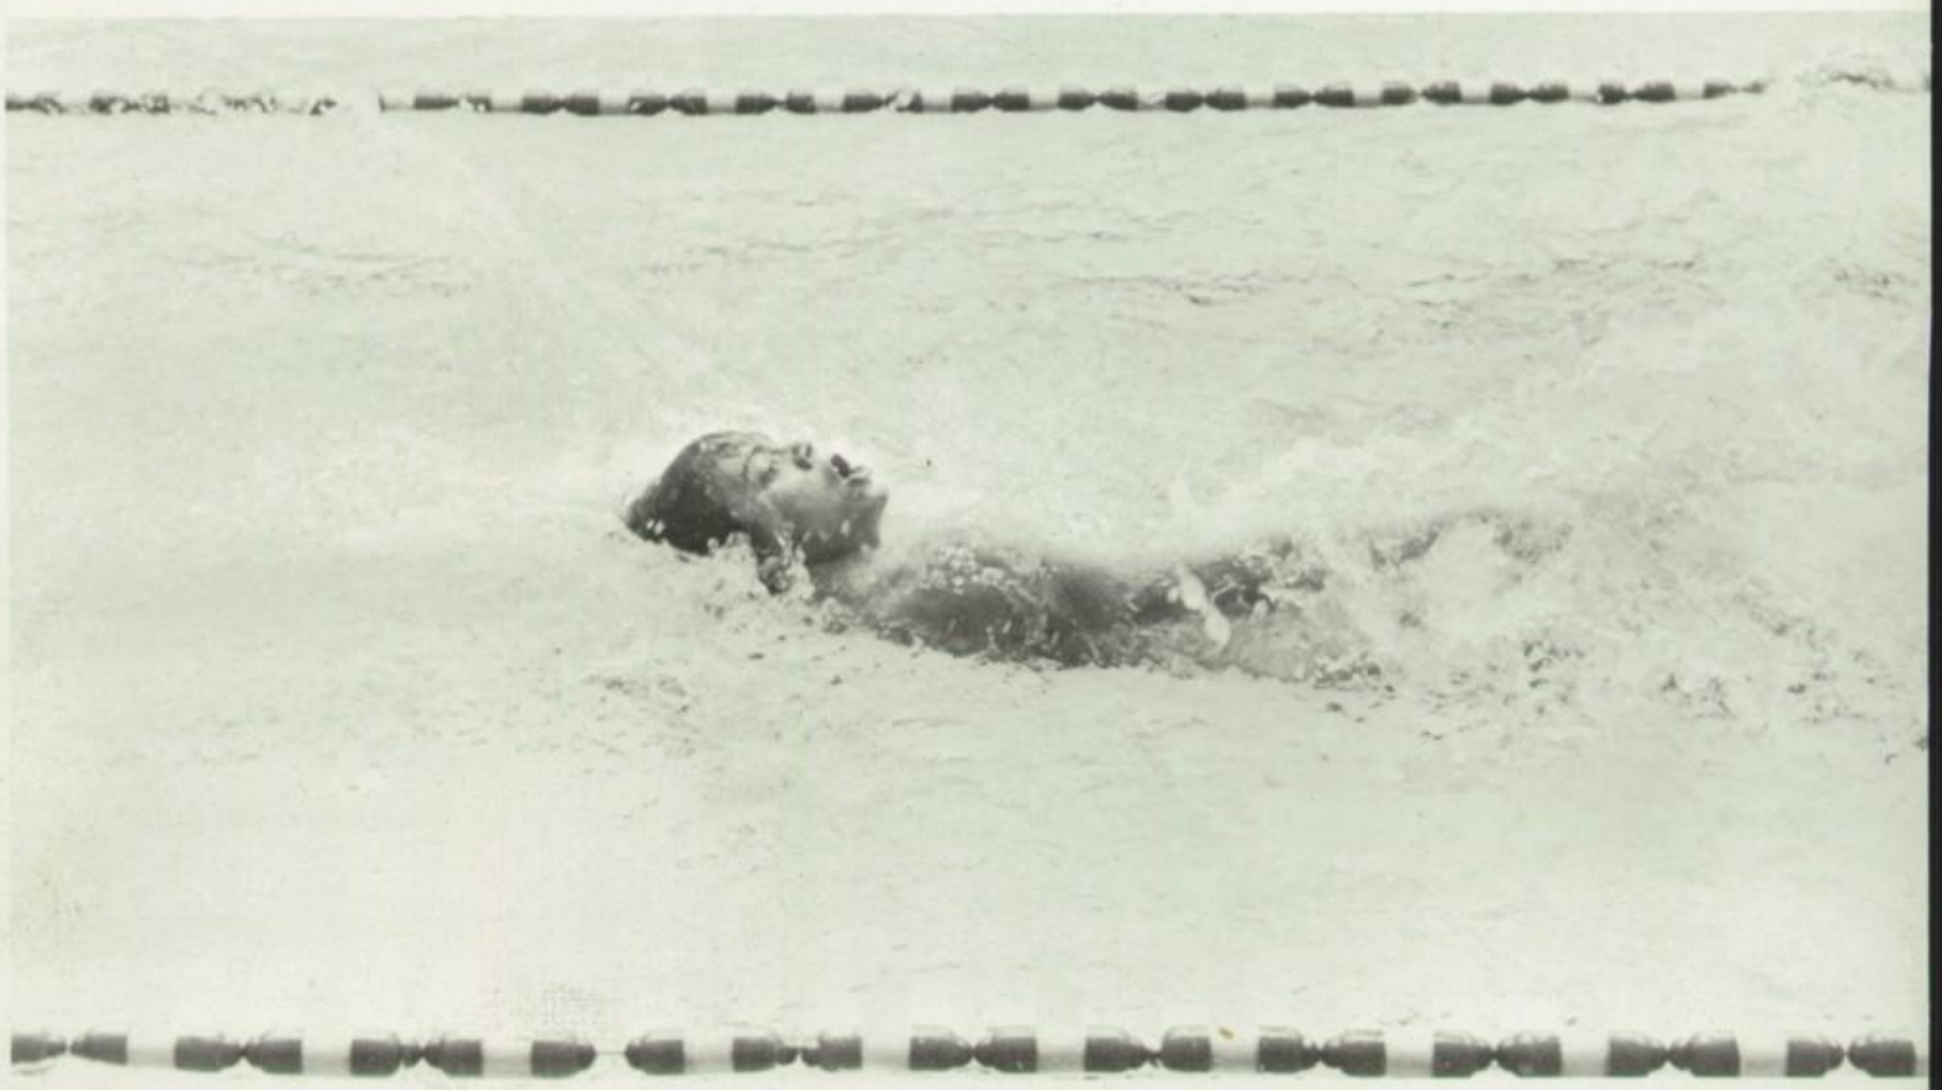
25-2 is not a bad year's work.



swimming



Swimming Team

What's a workout at 6:45 am?
What team worries about a water shortage?
A few at Chapel Hill
could answer.
Cold water; sprints;
no rest; and sophomores.
As usual, the Catfish have a lot to show.
Chapel Hill the only

track

Track, self-competition, athletes, striving to be good.
In track especially if your best is not good enough it doesn't show.
Runners are born.
You can't teach a sprinter how to run faster, only how to do his best.
Chapel Hill's track has a tradition of natural talent. To have a good team is to be one of the best.

Track Team

Chapel Hill has an unpredictable baseball game.
The coach has been changing every year.
A small team leaves little room
for depth,
or injury.
You make errors, not mistakes—
But it's the same thing.
This year the Cats should put everything together, and bring the team to a respectable conference standing.

"School Spirit,"
well-worn words.
And no one know it better than the cheerleaders.
Trying to find something new
in a clichéd phrase,
they give something more than an out-dated ideal.

JV cheerleaders

Pity the JV Cheerleaders.
They have a problem;
their class is in too much confusion
to really think of spirit, something that comes only with unity.
The cheerleaders know this.
They understand,
and through their own great enthusiasm,
they overcome.

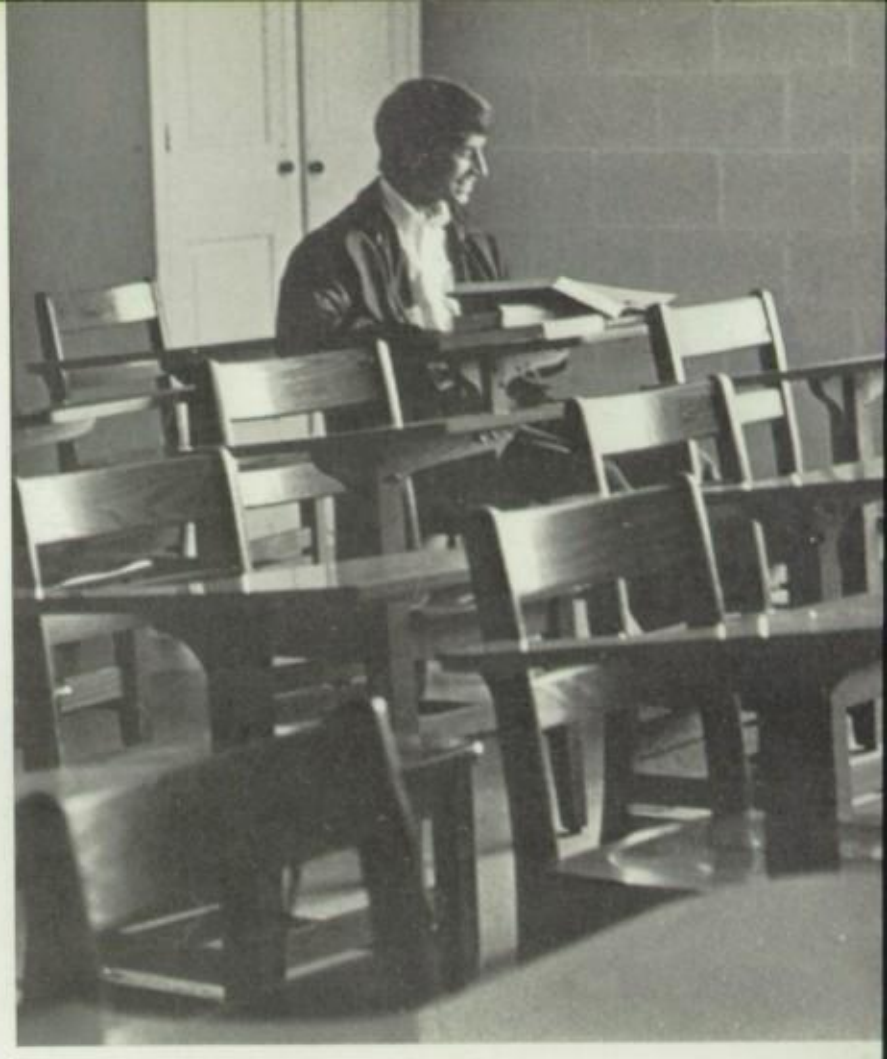
impressions



I am reading about
some persons, long dead.
Surreptitiously,
other names insert
themselves into the text,
and, presently, I am reading about us, as we shall be when we are the past. Most has utterly vanished.
Problems which were once
so vital, spread themselves over the pages
as cold abstractions—simple ones, but we failed to understand them. We appear as rather stupid, foolish,
self-seeking puppets,
moved by obvious
strings, which, now and again, get tangled up . . .

It is no caricature
that I encounter in the distorting mirror
of historical research.
Simply the proof that it all has been vanity.

I awoke
to an ordinary morning with gray light reflected from the street,
but still remembered
the dark-blue night
above the tree line,
the open moor in moonlight,
the crest in shadow.
Remembered other dreams
of the same mountain country:
twice I stood on its summits,
I stayed by its remotest lake,
and followed the river
towards its source.
The seasons have changed and the light
and the weather
and the hour.
But it is the same land.
And I begin to know the map and to get my bearings.

And the cycle begins all over again, but with a new sophomore class. We followed the traditions set before us, but we also formulated and carried out our own ideas. Our idea of a homecoming queen was a sophomore. And so it was. We decked the halls with mistletoe for the holiday season. We thought that students should have some baked goods occasionally after school. Almost every Thursday afternoon after Christmas, there was a bake sale sponsored by the sophomore class, as we, with our usual alacrity, plan ahead for our Junior-Senior.

So you're a junior, you're in a state of limbo, of suspended animation, of limitless space, you know. You're right in the middle of two extremes—seniors and sophs-worldliness and naivity. It can be a disconcerting feeling to be a junior, to be a middleman, to be, well, to be sort of average. Sure, you put on barbecues in the fall, knock off the seniors in the powderpuff game in the winter, folly in the spring, and, of course, come out with a junior-senior. But so what? What's that matter?

There's only one thing for you to do, juniors—become a senior quick.

Le courage de nos différences.
Without becoming irresponsible; to accept what divides us—with humility and pride. It is by the "new" that mankind is saved or betrayed.

Never let success hide its emptiness from you,
achievement its nothingness,
toil its desolation.
And so keep alive the incentive to push on further,
that pain in the soul
which drives us
beyond ourselves.

Still the question:
shall I ever get there?
There where life resounds,
a clear pure note
in the silence.

Is there room for my feet on your desk?

Good ole Kathy -
Whatever happened to you? You weren't in my homeroom this year. Terrible. Oh well. That's the breaks. Hack one more year and you will be out of here! Stay sweet.
Love,
Bo

Betsy,
I only know you well enough to wish you all the luck and happiness that you could ever want. That's not to bad, is it. Hope to see you some more next year if I'm around. Take care,

Dear Betsy,
You are a darling girl, with much potential. I've enjoyed this some more sweet, kind year & I hope to be in some classes with you next year. A person as you deserves being in your classes as you can offer. A person as sensitive as you can succeed in life. I wish you best of luck next year & years to come. All the best to you for next year & years to come.
